GENEALOGICAL GLEANINGS AMONG THE ENGLISH ARCHIVES.

AMONG the names connected with the founding of our Commonwealth, there is no more interesting personality than that of the distinguished navigator and discoverer, Bartholomew Gosnold, and yet, strangely enough, there is none whose personal and family history have been so uniformly neglected by our historians and genealogists; the former dismiss him with a few brief lines of comment on his eminent services, while the latter seem satisfied to accept his own statement that he was son and heir of Anthony Gosnold of Grundisburgh in Suffolk,* without the curiosity to verify the fact or follow out the pedigree of the gentle and adventurous race of whom he sprung.

Surely, the hardy pioneer of the shorter route across the Atlantic, the discoverer of the Elizabeth Islands, and the founder of the first settlement of white men on the shores of New England, to say nothing of his services in the Council of the Virginia Company, in whose behalf he laid down his life among the pestilent swamps of the lower Chesapeake, deserves a better fate than such semi oblivion.

With this feeling strong in my mind, I have for years been making collection of whatever I could find regarding this family, and it was with no little pleasure that I ascertained that the statement as to his parentage was verified in every particular, while the proven facts carry his lineage back clearly to the 15th century. In the evidences which follow, we may trace not only the gallant commander of the "Concord" and the "God-Speed," but also the others of his name and blood who sought our shores; while the connection with the Wingfields shown in the wills is especially interesting in view of the statement that Gosnold was the only member of the Council in Virginia with whom its hot headed President, Edward Maria Wingfield, could agree.† Letheringham, the ancient home of the Wingfields, is only three or four miles from Otley and Grundisburgh.

Will of ROBERT GOSNOLDE the elder of Otteley in the Countie of Suff, Esquier. Dated 20 October 1572. To be buried in the Church of Ottelie. To Anne my wife all household stuff and plate that was hers at marriage, all the redie money which she hath of hir owne gatheringe and all hir Inells with a pott of siluer and thirten siluer spoones with Apostles, and also £100, which I am bound to by indenture dated 10 October 1 Edward vi. To my grandchild Robert Gosnold a bason with a Ewer of siluer parcell gilte and a standinge cuppe of siluer double gilte which I bought of him with a bowle of siluer doble gilte with a couer, to remain to his eldest son. To the said Robert. I give my capital message in Otteley and my lands and tenements called hawes, Lorkins, Bakers, Walles Medowes, Erles in Swyneland and Brodemeadowe and my tenement called Cloddes with lands called Shribbes in tenure of Thomas Pettawe. And whereas I have assured to Anne my wife for a jointure, my manor of Netherhall in Otteley and other lands and tenements amounting to £20-10s-8d yearly, I give my grandson Robert Gosnolde all those lands and tenements with the reversion of the said manor to him & his heirs male. To Anthonie my grandson, my message called Gardiners with its lands and my meadows called Packards and Reves, and my tenement called Prattes & its lands, and my lands & tenements called the Falle. To Robert, John, Richard, Edmond, Elizabeth and Dorothy Gosnold, children of Robert, my grandson, £20 each at 21 years or marriage. To my grandchild John Gosnold £40. To Anthony my grandchild £40. To Edward Gosnold £20 at marriage. To my daughters Christian Ryvett and Johan Bromley £10 each. To John and Richard Gosnolde, sons of my grandchild Robert, all my lands and tenements in Ashefeld, Cretingham and Some. To Cicelie and Judith Gosnold, my grandchildren, £7-10s-each, to "fulfill the request of my sone John Gosnold deceased, made to me by his last will." To William Gosnolde £20 that he owes me. To Robert Rivett and two of his unmarried sisters £5 each. Elizabeth Bakon. Elizabeth Frent. Servant Edward Gosse. To Bartholomew son of Anthonie Gosnold £20. To Robert son of John Gosnold £20 which I have delivered to his father. Servant William Jolly. Robert Gosnold my grandson shall pay to his brother Edward £100 at 24 years, "to perform the will of my sonne Robert Gosnold deceased," and where the said Edward is admitted teñnt to certaine landes, parcell of landes called Chamblaines lying in Grundisburghe being copyhold, which landes, with others, were given to Anthonie Gosnolde by the will of my said son Robert, the said Edward shall surrender the same to his brother. My Grandchildren Robart and Anthonie Gosnold, Exors. Sir Robert Wingfeld, knight, Overseer. Witn: Richard Ryben & Edward Gosse. Proved 4 February 1573 by the Exors named in the will. P. C. C., Martyn, 6.

This will of the great-grandfather of Bartholomew Gosnold is most valuable in that it links together by its references, with absolute certainty, the family of our explorer and the pedigree of the Otley Gosnolds as given in the Visitations,* and leaves no possible doubt as to their identity.

The accompanying cut is a facsimile of a contemporary sketch drawn on the margin of the Register volume, probably by the engrossing clerk, from the seal of the testator. The arms, Per pale crenellée or and azure, being those of the Gosnolds of Otley.

In the preceding notes I have included all of the Gosnolds of Suffolk who occur as testators or intestates in the Prerogative Court up to the year 1650. There is another family of Bristol, who spell it Gosnell with great persistence down to the 18th Century, who also appear and of whom I made many notes during my work in Bristol, but, as there is no apparent connection with the Otley family, I have omitted them here. It may well prove, however, that they sprang from the same stock in Clopton.

IN the "Legal Opinion" which follows, from an ancient MS. volume in the possession of the Secretary of the Suffolk Archaeological Society (to whose courtesy I owe the permission to make this extract), labelled "Opiniones Doctorum," occurs the only trace of the will of an Anthony Gosnold, whom I fully believe to have been the nephew of our Bartholomew and the son of his brother Anthony (who was drowned in the James River in Virginia, in Jan., 1609). This son Anthony, whom I take to be the testator, was living and in Virginia in Oct., 1621, but may have returned to England in the eighteen years interval, and, as I find no trace of him in America after that, I believe that he did so. Unfortunately, the quotation is so brief that it is impossible to verify the fact from the evidence in hand. At present I can only hazard the conjecture that he was so. It is at least noteworthy that this Edmund was beyond seas at the making of this will, and thus shows himself in touch with the roving disposition of this hardy stock of adventurers. The quotation is given verbatim:—

ANTHONY GOSNOLD, gent., by his last will and testament bearing date the second Day of Aprill 1639 nōiated Roger Segrot gent his Extor & did give and bequeath the residue of his effects in manner and forme following

The rest & residue of all & singular the rest and residue of my goods and chattells whatsoever, and of whatsoever kind nature or quality the same be of leases, plate, ready money or money due or oweing to me upon mortgages, judgements, bills, bonds or otherwise whatsoever I doe hereby give and bequeath to the aforesaid Roger Segrot to his owne sole and proper use forever, wch Roger Segrot I doe hereby make and ordaine sole Extor of this my last will and testament.

In his said will and testament he formerly gave and bequeathed as followeth—

Item I doe give and bequeath unto Edmond Gosnold my naturall Brother the sume of C li. of lawfull money of England to be paid out of my psonall estate by my Extor within six monethes next after my decease if he shalbe then liveing otherwise not, & for as also he come in his own pson eyther within the foresaid six monethes or after, & clayme the same at the hands of mine Extor hereafter named his Extor & Adstors, & doe make seale & as his deed deliver unto him or them a sufficient acquittance & discharge thereof.

The said Anthony Gosnold the testator after the making of his will vizt. 11 November 1639 made a Codicil in writeing & did dispose therein as followeth

Whereas I the said Anthony Gosnold have by my last will & testament given and bequeathed unto my loving brother Edmund Gosnold gent certaine moneyes to be paid unto him at a certaine time mentioned in my said will, as in & by my said last will more plainly may appeare, now I doe give and bequeath unto my said brother Edmund Gosnold the sume of 200 li. of lawfull money of England to be paid in manner & forme & at such tyme as the said moneyes are specified & mentioned to be paid to him in or by my said last will in writeing.

And further pro vt sequit

The rest and residue of my bookes remayning in my said Study or library (except the said six bookes) I give and bequeath unto my said loving brother Josua Wade of Chevington gent, the wch said Josua Wade I doe nominate, appoint & ordaine one of my Extors of my said last will & testament And doe also give unto the said Josua Wade halfe my plate.

QUERENDUM.

1. first whether that if Edmund Gosnold doe not come over from beyond the seas can he demand his legacie by proxie. I am cleare of opinion he cannot because of these words in the will "come in his owne person &c."

2. What if Edmund Gosnold dieth within six monethes to whom doeth this legacie of 300 li. fall, is not the sune to be devided between the two Extors Roger Segrot named Extor in the will, & Josua Wade named Extor in the Codicill. I am cleare of opinion it belongeth wholly to Roger Segrott because to him alone is given the rest and residue of all and singular goods & chattells whatsoever &c.

3. Both the Extors have proved the will & Codicill now the psonall estate is wholly in the hands of Roger Segrott, is not he bound to pay unto Josua Wade his Executor the halfe of the said legacie of 300 li. given to Anthony Gosnold (sic), and the halfe of other legacies given to other legataries to remayne in his hands in regard he is liable to be sued aswell as Segrott for the same, if not, how shall the legataries recover their legacies & whom shall they sue for it if Mr. Segrot dieth, and Mr. Wade be surviveing Extor. I am of opinion that Segrot is not to deliver into the hands of his Executor any pte at all of the said 300 li. or of any other legacie: because if this 300 li. should prove a legacie vizt by the hapning of the condition yet the pfitt of it in the meane while doeth solely belong to Segrott to whom residuum bonorum is given & soe of the other legacies. But I conceive that Segrott ought to give security to Wade to save him harmlesse from any suite or claime of the said legacie of 300 li. in case he the said Segrott should die before the said Wade.

5 Martij 1639.

(Signed) THO: EDEN

The following entries, from the Town Books of Bury St. Edmunds, seem certainly to refer to the above testator, from the Wade connection shown, and exhibit him as resident in Bury from 1614 to 1636, a fact which certainly conflicts with his supposed residence in Virginia in 1621. It is probable that Samuel Wade was a kinsman as well as a servant, and closely connected with the "loving brother Josua Wade of Cherington"; the latter was probably the third son of Thomas and Mary (Brend) Wade of Brun-dish in Suffolk,* but whether Anthony Gosnold had married one of his three sisters, or Joshua Wade had married a sister of Anthony's, or if they were uterine half brothers, I cannot say.

Archdeaconry of Sudbury. Act. Books.

It seems probable that this Edmund Gosnold was the brother of Anthony (the father of Bartholomew) but called Edward in the Visitation Pedigrees. He was born about 1548, being aged 24 in 1572, and married Catharine, daughter of Henry Clifton of Tofts, co. Norfolk.* Nothing is yet known of his descendants. Or, it is possible that this was Anthony's nephew, the sixth son of Robert and Ursula (Naunton) Gosnold, but the former theory is more plausible.

Katherine and Joane, daughters of Robert Gosnold of Otley, by his first wife Agnes, daughter of John Hill of Ashe Bocking, and the aunts of Anthony Gosnold of Grundisburgh, married respectively to Thomas Golding of Postlingford, co. Suff., and John Golding of Walton Belechamp, co. Essex, brothers, and sons of Robert* (or Roger†) Golding of Grays, co. Suff.

Of the above wills, the first is that of the husband of Katherine. The second, of the son of Joane,‡ and from it we learn that she was still living in 1591, and had remarried a Brymeley, probably the John Brymeley who appears as witness to her son's will.

We will now turn from the consideration of the direct GOSNOLD line, with which the past pages have been occupied, to that of the family of BACON, from which Bartholomew Gosnold was descended through his mother, called "Dorothy Bacon of Hessel" in the pedigrees, but whose paternity has remained hitherto unknown. A long and patient search, involving the reading of several hundred wills, has at last resulted in the complete demonstration of her identity as the daughter of George and Margaret Bacon of Hessel in Suffolk, as will be seen in the wills which follow.

These wills are most interesting, for not only do they prove the important connection above stated, but the family pedigree includes also the well known Nathaniel Bacon, "the Rebel" of Virginia, and his cousin, Nathaniel Bacon, the Councillor and acting Governor there, with the New England families of Peck§ and Mason, and a more than suspected connection with the New England and Barbadoes families of Bacon,|| while the English line is brilliant with the names of Sir Nicholas Bacon of Redgrave, Lord Keeper of the Great Seal, and his still more famous son, Lord Verulam,

P. C. C., Peter, 28.

James Bacon, the above testator, was married three times; by his first wife, Mary, dau. of John Gardiner of Grove Place, co. Bucks., he had a daughter Anna, who married John Ryvett of Bramston, co. Suff., Esq., and three other children who all died in infancy. By his second wife, Margaret, daughter of Richard Rawlins of London, and widow of Richard Goldstone of London, salter, he had issue Sir James Bacon of Freston Hall, Suff., Knt., and William, second son, as well as two other children who did not survive.* His third wife was Ann, dau. of Humphrey Packenton, and relict of Edward Jackman, Alderman and Sheriff of London, by whom he had no issue. The eldest son, Sir James Bacon, by his wife Elizabeth, daughter of Francis and Anne (Drury) Bacon, left issue Nathaniel Bacon,† his son and heir, who was grandfather, through his eldest son Thomas, of Nathaniel Bacon of Virginia, "the Rebel," and, through his second son, Rev. James Bacon, Rector of Burgate in Suff., by his wife Martha Honeywood, of the other Nathaniel of Virginia, Councillor and acting Governor.‡

Martha, the widow of Rev. James Bacon, married second, Rev. Robert Peck, for 30 years Rector of Hingham in Suff., afterward of Hingham in Massachusetts, who had had issue by his first wife, a daughter, Anne Peck, who became the wife of Major John Mason of Seabrook, Conn., distinguished in the Pequot War.§

RESUMING the theme of the Gosnold family, I will now revert to the direct Gosnold line, and have pleasure in giving the long sought and most valuable will of Anne (Doggett), widow successively of Thomas Bacon of Hesselton and of Robert Gosnold of Otley. It is noteworthy that she speaks of her husband Gosnold's grandchildren as her own, but the known dates render it certain that they were the issue of his first wife Agnes (Hill), and her step children only.

Will of ANNE GOSNOLD of Otley, co. Suffolk, widow, late the wife of Robert Gosnold, Esquire, deceased. Dated 20 July, a thousand five hundred three score and eighteen. Will of Sir THOMAS BARRINGTON, Kt. Dated 6 Feb., 1580-1. My executors shall sell all my wood & timber growing in the grounds called Garlands, & also within the parish of Hatfield, towards the performance of this my will, & I bequeath them also for the payment of my debts and legacies all my term of years in the rectory and parsonage of Hatfield, co. Essex. To the eldest daughter of my daughter Harris, 40 li. To every of my household servants that hath served me by the space of a year or upwards, 20s. Richard Clarke, in respect of his honest service, to be by my executors largely considered. To my son Francis 800 li., beseeching him to be dutiful & loving to my dear wife, his mother. To my son Henry, 100 li., and during the time he shall be beyond sea, 80 li., wishing him to be dutiful and obedient to his said mother. To Thomas Byrles, that waiteth on my son Henry beyond the sea, 10 li. a quarter during the time he shall remain with my said son. Executors: my said wife, the Right honourable Henry, Erle of Huntingdon, Sir William Cordell, Sir Gilbert Gerarde, knights, and Andrew Grey, esquier; to each of whom I give 10 li. for their pains. To the poor of Hatfield, 20s. Witn: John Gybon, Jhon Symynges, Edward Doddinge, R. Yonger, Richard Waron, Frances Cromwell, William Netton. Proved 2 May 1581 by Mr. William Babham, notary public, proxy of Dame Winifred Hastings alias Barrington, relict of the deceased, and one of the executors named, with power reserved, etc. P. C. C., Darcy, 16.

In the preceding will I suspect that we have that of the father in law of our BARTHOLOMEW GOSNOLD. It is well known that his wife was a Barrington and probably of the Essex stock. In the Visitation of Essex in 1612,* an only daughter Catherine is assigned to Sir Thomas Barrington, who is not named in the will, and who may have been the missing wife of Bartholomew, but no evidence has yet been found to substantiate or disprove this theory.

Will of RICHARD GOSNOLL of Chigwell. Dated 19 April, 34 Elizabeth. To be buried in Chigwell churchyard. To my son Thomas Gosnoll, £10 when he shall come to the age of 20 years. To my daughter Anne, £10 when she shall come to the age of twenty years or on marriage. To my servant William Burton a pair of screws and two rowles. To my servant Elizabeth, 13/4. To them who well knew her & what maner of a wife shee was to me that is sufficient. To them that did not so well know her I doe thinke myself (who best knew her) in a maner bound to make this much of her knowne, videlt, etc. Witn: James Cobbe, Robert Browne, Anth Adams, Wm Maninge.

CODICIL, dated 11 Nov. 1639. My loveing brother Edmund Gosnold gent £200 more. Brother Joshua Wade and Margaret his wife to them and their heirs the lands before bequeathed for life. My cosen Edward Balles of Cowlinge gent sixe printed bookes to be chosen by him out of all my bookes except my law bookes. Joshua Wade to be one of my executors. Legacies to servants. Witn: John Bright, William Munings. Proved with Codicil, 13 Dec. 1639, by Roger Segrodt and Joshua Wade.

Arch. Sudbury, 1639-42. fol. 96.

With this interesting will, evidently that of the Anthony Gosnold on whose will I have already printed legal opinion, I will close these somewhat lengthy notes upon this family. I cannot do so, however, without expressing my cordial appreciation of the kindness of the many friends who have aided me in the extensive researches which I have made. In particular, I would acknowledge the courtesy of John Desborough Walford-Gosnold,* Esq., of Bentley in Suffolk, the present worthy representative of the family in that county, to whom I am indebted for permission to copy a very fine manuscript pedigree of his family, which has been of the greatest assistance in my work, being much more full of detail than the published pedigrees in the Visitations. I must also express my gratitude to my esteemed friend and correspondent, Mrs. M. B. Hutchinson of Ipswich, who has been tireless in chasing down obscure names and cross references in my behalf. To my friend Mr. Oswald Barron, of the Temple, London, I am also indebted for some valuable aid in the Prerogative Wills, including the sketch of the arms from the will of Robert Gosnold of Otley in 1573, with which this essay opened.

* Descended from Robert Gosnold of Otley, who died in 1605, the elder brother of Anthony of Grundisborough.
